

Diocese of New Jersey
238th Annual Diocesan Convention
Saturday, March 5, 2022, 10:00 a.m.

The 238th Diocesan Convention of the Diocese of New Jersey was held virtually by Zoom and by streaming on YouTube. The meeting was preceded by a service of Morning Prayer led by the Right Reverend William H. Stokes, Twelfth Bishop of New Jersey, by the Bishop's Address, and by the announcement of the following persons as Honorary Canons of the Cathedral: Bruce Montgomery, Paul Wolfgang, Sebastian Vazquez, Ann Notte, and Mary Ann Rhoads. Instructions on participation in the Zoom meeting were given by Canon Steven Welch, Diocesan Canon for Communications, and on voting by Brandon Mwendo of the firm Data on the Spot.

Call to Order:

Bishop Stokes opened the meeting with prayer and presented greetings to the Convention from the Most Reverend Michael B. Curry, Presiding Bishop of The Episcopal Church, the Right Reverend Carlye Hughes, Bishop of the Diocese of Newark, the Right Reverend Cristobal Leon Lorenzo, Bishop of the Diocese of Ecuador Litoral, and read greetings from the Right Reverend M. Blair Couch, Bishop of the Northern Province of the Moravian Church in America. He reminded participants of Zoom protocols, and then called on Canon Paul Ambos, Secretary of the Convention, who reported that 130 members of the clergy and 118 congregations were present online, which constituted a quorum under Article V of the Constitution of the Diocese.

The Bishop called the Convention to order at 10:37 a.m. and called on the reverend Canon Dr. Frank A. Hubbard for a Report of the Committee on the Credentials of Lay Deputies. He reported that all parochial reports have been submitted as required by canon and all credentials of lay deputies are in order except for St. Andrew's, Allenhurst, St. Augustine's, Camden, and Holy Trinity, Spring Lake, who were not entitled to representation. On motion duly made, seconded, and carried, the Committee's report was adopted.

The Bishop called on the Reverend John V. Zamboni for the Report of the Committee on the Classification of Congregations. Fr. Zamboni on behalf of the Committee moved that since the Parish of St. John's Church, Camden no longer conducted services, it be declared extinct pursuant to New Jersey Revised Statutes section 16:12-16. The motion was carried. On behalf of the Committee, he reported that Bishop Stokes had, in accordance with Diocesan Canon 60, Section 2(a), recommended the reclassification of the Parish Congregation of Grace Church, Plainfield, to Mission status, and the Diocesan Council has concurred with this recommendation. On behalf of the Committee he moved that the Convention ratify this change, and this motion was carried. Finally, he reported that Bishop Stokes, in accordance with Diocesan Canon 60, Section 2(b), had accepted the request of the Parish Congregation of St. Martin-in-the-Fields, Lumberton, to be reclassified to Mission status, and, the Standing Committee having concurred with this request, the Bishop has so reclassified it. There were no further changes of classification this year. On motion duly made, seconded, and carried, the Committee's report was adopted.

The Bishop called on Canon Ambos as Chair of the Committee on Rules of Order and Dispatch of Business, who on behalf of the Committee moved adoption of the Rules of Order for Convention 2022, Document #2 as posted on the Diocesan website, and this motion was carried. On behalf of the Committee he moved adoption of the Agenda, Document #1, and this motion was carried. He moved adoption of the Consent Calendar, Document #1-A, and asked that it be tabled to give members of the Convention an opportunity to remove specific items from the Consent Calendar for separate consideration, and the Bishop absent objection so ordered.

The Bishop called on the Reverend Michael Way, Chair of the Nominating Committee, for a report. Fr. Way on behalf of the Committee moved the nomination of all the candidates set forth in the Committee's report, Document #16, including those presented through the Committee, those marked with an asterisk who were nominated through the Secretary of Convention pursuant to Section 5 of Canon 4, and those marked with two asterisks have had floor nominations pre-filed pursuant to Rule VI Section 2 of the Rules of Order in anticipation of their being nominated from the floor.

On motion duly made, seconded, and carried, nominations for Office A were closed without further nominations. On motion duly made, seconded, and carried, nominations for Office B were closed without further nominations. On motion duly made, seconded, and carried, nominations for Office C were closed following the nomination from the floor for the Reverend Robin Pierre, who expressed his willingness to serve if elected. On motion duly made, seconded, and carried, nominations for Office D were closed without further nominations. On motion duly made, seconded, and carried, nominations for Office E were closed without further nominations. On motion duly made, seconded, and carried, nominations for Office F were closed without further nominations. On motion duly made, seconded, and carried, nominations for Office G were closed without further nominations. On motion duly made, seconded, and carried, nominations for Office H were closed without further nominations. On motion duly made, seconded, and carried, nominations for Office I were closed without further nominations. On motion duly made, seconded, and carried, nominations for Office J were closed following the nomination from the floor for Ms. Pat Hawkins, who expressed her willingness to serve if elected. On motion duly made, seconded, and carried, nominations for Office K were closed without further nominations. On motion duly made, seconded, and carried, nominations for Office L were closed without further nominations. On motion duly made, seconded, and carried, nominations for Office M were closed without further nominations. On motion duly made, seconded, and carried, nominations for Office N were closed without further nominations. On motion duly made, seconded, and carried, nominations for Office O were closed without further nominations. On motion duly made, seconded, and carried, nominations for Office P were closed without further nominations. On motion duly made, seconded, and carried, nominations for Office Q were closed without further nominations. On motion duly made, seconded, and carried, nominations for Office R were closed without further nominations. On motion duly made, seconded, and carried, nominations for Office S were closed without further nominations. On motion duly made, seconded, and carried, nominations for Office T were closed without further nominations. On motion duly made, seconded, and carried, nominations for Office U were closed without further nominations.

The Bishop called on Deacon Leslie Mazzacano as Chair of the Balloting Committee to give voting directions. Prior to doing so, she noted that there were no contests for Offices D, G, H, I, J, K, L, N, P, Q, R, S, T, and U and moved that the nominees for these offices be declared elected by acclamation. Without objection, the Bishop so ruled and declared them elected. Thereupon, instructions were given, and voting on the First Ballot via the Data on the Spot website commenced at 11:28 and was open until 11:40.

When the Convention reconvened, Canon Ambos reported to the Chair that no items were asked to be removed from the Consent Calendar, and he moved its approval on behalf of the Committee on Rules of Order. The motion was carried, and the items on the Consent Calendar were deemed adopted or rejected as set forth in the presenting bodies' recommendations for each item.

Bishop Stokes acknowledged the Right Reverend Joe Morris Doss, Tenth Bishop of New Jersey, and the Right Reverend Herbert A. Donovan, Jr., the Right Reverend David B. Joslin, and the Right Reverend Sylvestre D. Romero, each of whom had served as Assisting Bishops in the Diocese. Canon Ambos moved that greetings be sent to the retired Bishop, Assisting Bishops who served in the Diocese of New Jersey, and members of the clergy who were unable to participate in this convention due to illness. The motion was duly seconded and carried.

The Reverend Canon Robert H. Legnani presented the Clergy Necrology Report.

Canon Annette Buchanan presented the Lay Leader Necrology Report.
At 12:03, the Reverend Allen Wakabayashi led Noonday Prayers.

Ms. Valaida Wynn Guerro, Chair for the Bishop's Search and Nominating Committee, reported on the activities of the Committee to date.

The Reverend Robert Fitzpatrick reported for Project Resource.

The Bishop called on the Reverend Canon Valerie Balling to report on the Diocesan General Convention with regard to the upcoming Province II Synod and the General Convention.

The Bishop called on the Diocesan Treasurer, Mr. Jonathan Gloster, to report for the Finance and Budget Committee and to move adoption of the 2022 Revised Budget as set forth in Financial Exhibit I as the Affirmed Diocesan Budget for 2022. The motion was carried.

Mr. Gloster moved adoption of the 2023 Preliminary Budget as set forth in Financial Exhibit I as the Preliminary Diocesan Budget for 2023. During discussion, the Reverend John V. Zamboni, St. Francis Church, Dunellen, moved to amend the budget as follows:

Resolved, That the 238th Diocesan Convention commit to fund a full-time Black Missioner position in the 2023 Budget.

The motion was duly seconded and debate was held. A motion to terminate debate was duly moved, seconded, and carried by the required two-thirds vote, and the resolution was thereupon carried. Ms. Leigh-Anne M. Cobb, St. Mark's, Plainfield, moved the following amendment:

Resolved, That the 2023 budget lower the starting salaries of new positions and limit the cost of living allowance to 2% in order to fund the position of Black Missioner as full-time.

The motion was duly seconded and debate was held. A motion to table the resolution was ruled out of order by Parliamentarian Paul Ambos, but a motion to refer it to the Finance and Budget Committee was duly made, seconded, and carried. A motion to terminate debate on the 2023 budget as amended by Fr. Zamboni's resolution was duly moved, seconded, and carried by the required two-thirds vote, and the budget as so amended was thereupon carried.

Bishop Stokes called on the Reverend Canon Richard C. Wrede, Archivist and Historiographer of the Diocese, to give a report and to move the following Celebratory Greetings:

Whereas, St. John's Church in Salem celebrates the 300th anniversary of its organization in 1722; and

Whereas, Trinity Church in Cranford, St. Barnabas' Church in Monmouth Junction, and St. James' Paulsboro celebrate the 150th anniversary of their organization in 1872; and

Whereas, St. Stephen's Church in Whiting celebrates the 50th anniversary of its organization in 1972;

Be it therefore resolved, That the 238th Annual Convention of the Diocese of New Jersey, assembled via Zoom, tender congratulations to the clergy and congregation of these churches, wishing them God's blessings in the years ahead.

Whereas, the Reverend Robert E. Sullivan, Jr. celebrates the seventieth anniversary of his ordination to the Priesthood; and

Whereas, the Reverend G. Richard Civalier and the Reverend Canon Martin Gutwein celebrate the fiftieth anniversary of their ordination to the Diaconate and Priesthood; and

Whereas, the Reverends James T. Kollin, Patricia D. Pierce, Charles Nugent Lochner, Margaret H. Raven, and Timothy S. Holder celebrate the twenty-fifth anniversaries of their ordinations to the Priesthood; and

Whereas, the Reverends Catherine E. Brunson, Frances M. Clark, Debra M. Clarke, John H. Hanson, and Barbara Ann D. Jensen, Deacons, celebrate their twentieth ordination anniversaries; and

Whereas, the Reverends Paul Frank Castellon, Peter Stuart Cornell, Richard Joseph Wisniewski, Deacons, celebrate their fifteenth ordination anniversaries; and

Whereas, the Reverends Henry Platt Bristol II, Janet Daniels, Carlton Willard Dunn, Jr., Theodore Archer Foley, Sally Beth Maurer, and Clive Oscar Sang, Deacons, celebrate their tenth ordination anniversaries;

Be it therefore resolved, That the 238th Annual Convention of the Diocese of New Jersey, assembled via Zoom, offer heartfelt congratulations and warmest thanks for their dedicated ministry to the church, this Diocese, and its people.

These resolutions were duly seconded and adopted.
